

DANIEL

Our son Daniel was at EarlyEd in 1983. The early intervention that Dano had, left him in good stead. He had the confidence to learn to read and literacy has opened the world to him. He is computer literate and competent in many other areas.

His greatest attribute is his empathy and delight in people, I think. He treats everyone equally and has been a representative meeting with the Governor, Prime Minister, Premiers and many, many politicians and other dignitaries. He's spoken many times in front of 700 people or more with aplomb and delights the crowds with his personality, humour and warmth.

Dan has grown to be a competent and confident young man, and an absolute delight to be with. Although these photos depict him with dignitaries, he treats everyone he meets as a special person.

Thank you to all those hard-working and professional women (and it was only women in those days) whose dedication led Dan into a life of fulfilment and joy.
